HISTORICAL.

The first entry in the first minute book of the Saffron Walden Hospital says, "A sum of money having been left by the late Wyatt George Gibson for building a hospital in the town of Saffron Walden a meeting of the inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood was held at the Town Hall on Thursday, 20th Nov., 1862 at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of making the preliminary arrangements for carrying out the wish of the Donor."

The result of this meeting is shewn in the records which follow the original entry. On February 13th of the following year we find that the suggested site on the Castle Hill had been turned down; "Mr. Gibson reported that Lord Braybrooke had kindly offered to present a site for the Hospital on the London Road." Four months later, on July 1st 1863, "plans submitted by various architects were examined, and that enclosed under the motto 'Heal the Sick' was preferred." It was found to be by Mr. W. Beck and by invitation, he came down to the next meeting of the Committee on July 16th.

It was not until February 8th 1864, that the tenders of various building firms were laid before the committee and that of Messrs Bell & Son was accepted. The amount of their tender was £4,897 but this was afterwards reduced to £4,206. The same firm were successful in obtaining the contract for building the Wall, their estimate being £138 10s. 0d.

There is now a considerable lapse of time during which we may suppose that active building was in progress, for on June 20th 1865, we find an entry to the effect that a sub-committee meeting was held at the Hospital this day, "Resolved that Mr. Beck's opinion be taken as to the description of range to be placed in the kitchen."

The year 1866 saw more progress in organisation. The rules were passed on February 15th; the first matron, Miss Ann Cogle, was appointed on May 18th, at a salary of £40; the first dispenser on July 9th, at a similar salary of £40; and on August 8th 1866, it was resolved that the Hospital be opened for reception of patients the first week in September.

Before this took place, however, there was an important "General Meeting" on August 22nd 1866, at which the chairman stated that £5504 12s. 2d. had been expended in building, and £680 in furnishing, while £100 was laid out on the dispensary. At the meeting the officers of the Hospital were appointed, with Lord Braybrooke as President, Mr. G. S. Gibson as Treasurer and the local medical men as medical officers. Among the Vice-Presidents we find the names of Gibson, Wilkes, Tuke and Frye, and among the board the names of Leverett, Clayden, Robson and Emson.

Also at the same General Meeting "an oak table was accepted from Mr. Marking of Copt Hall, for the Board Room."

A few days later (August 28th) a nurse was appointed at a salary of £18 per annum, and a ladies committee was formed.

The next step must have been the opening of the Hospital and the admission of patients, but there is no record on the minutes of these events, which must have taken place without any special celebration.

There are however a few interesting items in the later reports, as on October 2nd 1866 when Mr. Stear was authorized to spend £30-£40 on instruments; on February 5th 1867, when it was noted that the amount received from patients for the previous month was £1 13s. 0d.; and also "a patient in the Hospital having expressed her willingness to defray the whole cost of her maintenance, resolved that she be charged 12/- a week."

On June 4th 1867, the first "Report and Statement of Accounts prepared by the Treasurer were submitted to the meeting and approved."

The First Annual Meeting was held on June 12th 1867, at 12 o'clock "Reported that the income for the first year was £580 7s. 9d., while expenditure for 8 months since opening was £569 0s. 5d. The number of patients admitted was 63, and out-patients 65.

69th Report of the Board of Management.

THE past year has seen the completion of improvements foreshadowed in our last report. The X-Ray plant installed in 1926 has been replaced by a more efficient "shock-proof" apparatus, which during the few months it has been in use has proved very satisfactory; it is now possible, not only to take larger photographs but to take them with a shorter exposure. The cost of the apparatus has been met out of the funds of the hospital, assisted by a very generous gift of £250 0s. 0d. from the Contributory Scheme.

In the operating theatre, new water sterilizers, electrically heated, have been installed and a long-felt want has at last been supplied. At the same time the worn-out dressing sterilizer has been removed from the theatre and a new and larger one has been placed in the basement, thus providing increased efficiency and reducing the steam in the theatre. A 'Keepalite' system of emergency lighting has also been fitted in the theatre and O.P. rooms.

The Nurses' Home has been enlarged, four additional rooms being added under the supervision of the architect, Mr. E. M. Allan-Hallett. This has made it possible to give the night nursing staff bedrooms apart from the day staff, a very obvious advantage.

During the year 538 patients were admitted to the wards, including 53 private cases. In the out-patient room 492 patients received attention. In the X-Ray department 431 patients were dealt with; of these 141 were cases from the wards and 290 were out-patients; In all 1144 photographs were taken. A word of thanks is due to Miss Day for her efficient work in this department.

The Contributory Scheme has paid £1,687 17s .7d. to the revenue of the Hospital during 1934. To Mr. F. J. Pitstow, the President, and Mr. A. J. O. Cook, the Hon. Secretary, and to the workers of the Scheme, we wish to express our grateful thanks.

We desire to express our thanks also to Capt. and Mrs. Montagu for their very generous help in organizing the Hospital Fête in the Grounds of Shortgrove on July 7th. A most successful Fête, favoured by brilliant summer weather resulted in the raising of £914 17s. 4d., and this sum is to be devoted towards the building of a new children's ward, for which plans are now under consideration. To complete the scheme and furnish the ward more money is needed, but surely it is not too much to hope that the year 1935 will see this badly-needed department in full working order.

The Linen League, presided over by Lady Braybrooke, has supplied sheets, blankets, tablecloths, unbleached linen and material for dressing towels; to the ladies of the League we tender our sincere thanks.

The funds of the Hospital have benefited by donations from the Saffron Walden Bowls Club, Essex County Bowling Association, Provincial Grand Chapter of Essex, Dunmow Church Parade, Halstead Charity Cup, Saffron Walden Sportsmen's Service, and the Saffron Walden Training College. A Flower and Fruit Show at the Corn Exchange organised by Mr. J. G. Holland and Mr. L. A. Buck, resulted in a sum of £27 15s. 0d. being given to the Hospital Special Improvements Fund, and we also profited by the opening of Broom Wood in the daffodil season.

The Women's Institutes of the district organized "Pound Days." Egg collections organized by the Girl Guides, Women's Institutes, Churches and Sunday Schools as well as gifts from friends were greatly appreciated. Fresh eggs and vegetables are a valuable addition to the Hospital commissariat and we would welcome even more help in this direction.

We have lost a great friend during the year by the death of Dr. E. A. O. Travers. A man of wide experience, who had served with distinction abroad, he brought his medical and administrative knowledge to bear on the problems of this Hospital. He was a member of the Board and Committees for seven years, and at the time of his death was Chairman of the House Committee.

At the time of writing this report we learn with sorrow of the great loss the Hospital has sustained by the death of our Hon. Secretary, Major A. S. Barthropp. He was a staunch supporter for many years. He became Hon. Secretary in 1923 and in this capacity, his tactful intervention tided over many difficulties.

The resignation of Mr. Herbert J. Barrand from the post of Honorary Dental Surgeon, which he had held since 1923, has been received with very great regret. He is succeeded by Mr. S. H. Rands, L.D.S., whose appointment we ask the Governors to confirm. Mr. Kenneth Lumsden, F.R.C.S. joined the Medical Staff at the beginning of the year. We extend to him a cordial welcome and ask the Governors to confirm his appointment as Honorary Medical Officer.

To the other members of the Honorary Staff we again offer our sincere thanks.

To the Matron and Nursing Staff our appreciation and thanks are due. The work at times has been very heavy, as shewn by the figures in the report. In spite of this a higher standard is being maintained. For this and for the efficient and smooth administration in domestic and nursing departments we owe a special debt to Miss D. E. Smeeton, the Matron, and it is with very sincere regret that we learn that she is shortly leaving the Hospital. We congratulate her on her appointment as Matron in a larger Hospital, and wish her success and higher promotion in the future.

Two of our nurses, having completed two years' training are now at the Radcliffe Infirmary, Oxford. One has passed the First State Examination and will go in April. Two others sat for their examination recently, and, if successful, will go on to Oxford later in the year.

THE YEAR'S WORK.

A glance at the comparative table will shew that the work of the Hospital is still growing. There were 531 admissions to the wards and of these 94 were medical cases, 379 surgical and 65 accidental injuries; 19 of the latter group were persons injured on the road, all but one being involved in motor accidents.

When it is remembered that the number of beds in the hospital has not increased, it will be realised that the larger number of admissions means a more rapid "turnover," more work on the part of the medical and nursing staffs, and more administrative work for the matron and secretary.

Ten years ago 260 patients were admitted, this year 538, an increase of rather more than 100%. The daily average of beds occupied has risen from 18.8 to 23.4.

In the casualty and out-patient room 492 patients were treated as compared with 388 last year, and 97 ten years ago.

181 Dental cases were dealt with, some of the more serious being treated as in-patients.

Operations. Excluding dental cases, 329 operations were performed. In addition there were 27 examinations requiring anæsthesia or involving special methods.

Among major operations 88 were for abdominal conditions, of which 34 were for appendicitis. Among the remaining operations that for removal of diseased tonsils and adenoids easily heads the list, with 35 dissections and 42 guillotine operations.

Only two major amputations were performed during the year.

Anæsthetics have an important share in operative surgery, and the modern tendency is towards the use of more elaborate methods to attain greater safety and comfort for the patient. The Hospital possesses Boyle's and Shipway's apparatus and these have been used on 42 occasions. A table of anæsthetics used is given below with the table of operations.

PRESIDENT :

COMMITTEE :

MRS. BARTHROPP, MRS. BROCKLEBANK, LADY FOOT-MITCHELL, MISS TUKE,
THE MATRON OF THE HOSPITAL.

HON. SEC. AND TREAS. : THE LADY BRAYBROOKE, AUDLEY END, SAFFRON WALDEN.

Again we are asking you to help us as you have so generously done in the past. We have a balance of £21 but in view of the building of a children's ward in the near future, we feel that sum will not be sufficient to equip it with the necessary linen and blankets, etc., and to carry on another year.

We have had one or two gifts for which we wish to thank the contributions. The list of our purchases is below and we are much indebted to Mr. Spurge for letting us have the things at cost price.

We are very grateful to our Vice-Presidents for all their help and wish to remind them that all linen should be sent to the Hospital by April 9th, and money and lists of linen to the Hon. Sec., marked "Linen League" on envelope.

The General Meeting and Exhibition of Linen will be held at the Hospital on Tuesday, April 16th at 3 p.m., to which all are invited.
